

Customer Story

ENT Allergy And Sinus

At ENT Allergy and Sinus clinic, the best quality treatment is offered for all issues related to hearing, nasal problems, respiratory allergies and skin conditions. It is one of the best facilities for treatment of skin cancer.

Angela Hissner, a clinical audiologist and Dr. David Hartman, an otorhinolaryngologist and certified facial plastic surgeon run this clinic where patient comfort is priority. Since 2004, ENT Allergy and Sinus has been committed to provide curative and preventive healthcare services in the form of advanced medical and surgical procedures to their patients.

Challenge

When ENT Allergy and Sinus came in contact with Growth99 in June 2020, they were facing issues due to an old and outdated website. They had seen some impressive work done for other websites by Growth99 and wanted something similar for their venture. They wanted a new website that was faster and user friendly. ENT Allergy and Sinus hoped to secure more online bookings via enhanced website presence.

Dr Hartman had a vision of offering the services of his clinic to more people via online means with the help of rebranding and SEO techniques.

Solution

Growth99 set out to make a stronger web presence for ENT Allergy and Sinus by working on a new website for them. They uploaded quality word content including monthly blogs and SEO driven articles to ensure a steady supply of information for users to read. This helped to increase the number website users and online bookings.

Efforts of Growth99 helped the online portrayal of ENT Allergy and Sinus as one of the best clinics for treatment of allergies, hearing disorders and skin cancer.
