Customer Story Dahlia Aesthetics

Dahlia Aesthetics is the aesthetic wing of Women's Health Associates committed to offer health and wellness services to women of multiple age groups. Cosmetic procedures, anti-ageing treatments, preventive wellness are some of the services offered here.

Dahlia Aesthetics understands that every woman is different and therefore they offer customized treatment options for all. They don't just treat you, they pamper you in the best way possible. They help you feel more confident by helping you enhance your appearance just the way you want.

Challenge

Dahlia Aesthetics came in contact with Growth99 in the year 2020. They had seen some of the impressive work done by Growth99 for websites of other spas and wanted something similar. Dahlia aesthetics was in need of a website that would help easy conversion of organic leads into online patient bookings.

They wanted Growth99 to handle their online reputation management and SEO for their website and social media platforms.

Solution

Growth99 worked on creating a robust website that was both user friendly and highly advanced at the same time. Regular blogs and other word content were uploaded on the website for benefit of users. Advanced SEO techniques were used to ensure that Dahlia Aesthetics ranked higher up than before during online searches.

Increased web presence and organic traffic led to a phenomenal increase in the patient base of Dahlia Aesthetics. They now serve clients from far and wide and enjoy more positive reviews than ever.
