Customer Story

Envi Aesthetics

Envi Aesthetics is a beauty and wellness spa, offering a range of anti-ageing, cosmetic and wellness services to men and women. Envi Aesthetics prides themselves for offering customized services designed to suit every client individually.

They also offer concierge services to clients within the comforts of their home or any other comfortable location. Chemical peels, microneedling, dermal fillers, I.V vitamin therapy and weight loss treatment are some of the wellness and beauty options provided at Envi Aesthetics.

Challenge

Envi Aesthetics reached out to Growth99 in 2021 to seek help with creating a digital footprint for themselves in the world of medical aesthetics. They were in need of a robust website that would be impressive and help generate a good number of organic leads.

Envi Aesthetics wanted Growth99 to help them scale greater heights by becoming a successful business venture through increased online popularity.

Solution

Growth99 created an impressive and informative website for Envi Aesthetics which began attracting a lot of users. Keyword driven content helped garner tremendous online attention to the website which displayed the Envi Aesthetics spa in a new light.

Easy online bookings led to an increase in the number of clients for Envi Aesthetics. Growth99 also worked hard for a suitable call to action for Envi Aesthetics, which had clients making a beeline towards the beauty spa. The spa now enjoys a huge fan following and also countless positive reviews online.
